Official Draw for 2014 CONCACAF Women's Championship to Take Place Friday, September 5 at 10 AM EST

MIAMI (Thursday, September 04, 2014) - The Confederation of North, Central America and Caribbean Association Football (CONCACAF) is pleased to remind media that the official draw for the CONCACAF Women's Championship USA 2014 will take place on Friday, September 5, at 10 AM EST.

The draw will be conducted at the InterContinental at Doral, and will be streamed live on CONCACAF.com. The event will sort the eight qualified nations set to participate in the CONCACAF Women's Championship into two groups of four teams each.

The draw will utilize five pots, three (1, 2 and 3) for teams and two (4 and 5) for group position. As host, the United States will be seeded in position A1 and drawn from Pot 1 alongside fellow North American entrant Mexico. Pots 2 and 3 will then be drawn in that order, filling out the two groups.

The pots for the draw will therefore be designated as follows:

Pot 1 (North America): USA; Mexico

Pot 2 (Central America): Costa Rica; Guatemala

Pot 3 (Caribbean): Haiti, Jamaica, Martinique, Trinidad & Tobago

The CONCACAF Women's Championship will qualify three teams directly to the FIFA Women's World Cup Canada 2015, with a fourth earning the right to face a South American country in a playoff. Media members interested in attending the draw in person should RSVP to media@concacaf.org, indicating full name, function, and medium represented.

A mixed zone will follow the draw, featuring national team technical staff, as well as former US Women's National Team greats Michelle Akers and Tiffany Roberts, who will be on hand to assist in the execution of the draw.
